CyberArmor Small Business

Policy wording (synthetic sample for demonstration only).

1. Definitions

1.1 "Policy" means the CyberArmor Small Business cyber policy wording and schedule issued to you.

1.2 "Insured Amount" means $500,000, the most we pay in total in any policy year.

1.3 "Deductible" means $2,500, the portion of each claim you bear first.

2. Coverage

2.1 CyberArmor Small Business pays covered losses up to the Insured Amount of $500,000 per policy year.

2.2 Extra benefit: ransomware negotiation and recovery costs.

2.3 A deductible of $2,500 applies to each separate claim.

3. Exclusions

3.1 CyberArmor Small Business does not cover losses from unpatched systems older than 90 days.

3.2 We do not pay for losses caused by war, nuclear risks or deliberate acts.

3.3 Fraudulent or exaggerated claims void the claim and may void the policy.

4. Waiting Periods

4.1 Cover under CyberArmor Small Business starts after a waiting period of 0 days from the policy start date.

4.2 Claims for events during the waiting period are not payable.

4.3 The waiting period does not apply to renewals without a break in cover.

5. Claims Procedure

5.1 Notify us of a claim under CyberArmor Small Business within 14 days of the event.

5.2 Send the claim form, proof of loss and any bills or reports we ask for.

5.3 We aim to settle valid claims within 15 working days of receiving every document.

6. Premiums and Grace Period

6.1 The premium for CyberArmor Small Business is $110 per month, due on the first of each month.

6.2 A grace period of 30 days applies to late payments, and cover continues during the grace period.

6.3 If the premium is still unpaid when the grace period ends, the policy lapses.

7. Cancellation and Free Look

7.1 You may cancel CyberArmor Small Business within the 10-day free look period for a full refund.

7.2 After the free look period, cancelling needs 30 days written notice.

7.3 We may cancel for non-payment or fraud with 14 days written notice.